ACROSS

2. A famous “doctor” for whom the medical school is named.

4. A way to consolidate your charitable giving and avoid the complexities of setting up a private foundation.

7. A simple statement in your will that designates a gift to a charitable organization.

8. Dartmouth-Hitchcock’s Lebanon hospital is named in memory of her.

DOWN

1. A non-cash asset you can use to make a gift.

3. A special group you become part of when you establish a planned gift to benefit Dartmouth-Hitchcock or the Geisel School of Medicine.

5. A tax-smart form of giving that Congress made permanent in 2015.

6. A gift that provides income for your lifetime.